

James Logan – Executive Director for MRC Creekside

James Logan has been serving senior adults since 2000. He joined the MRC team in July of 2000 at MRC Crestview where he served as the Dining Director. Through dedication and pursuit of his goals, he started his career with aspirations of becoming a licensed administrator. James held true to course to become a Licensed Nursing Facility Administrator and completed all course work in December of 2014. He officially received licensure in March of 2015; he was then promoted to Executive Director at Creekside. James brings with him the hospitality aspect of service not only to the residents but to the staff as well. Mr. Logan also has a Bachelor of Science in Food Science and Technology from Texas A&M University. James received his Certified Aging Services Professional Certification (CASP) from the University of North Texas in 2012. James is an active member with Leading Age Texas where he serves as Chairperson on the Dining and Nutrition peer group. James not only believes in being involved with MRC Creekside but also is actively involved with the Huntsville community through his participation with the Huntsville Lions Club.
